

Alan Irvine

I find it difficult to comprehend that having given so much aid to Indonesia over many many years and continuing to do so, Indonesia is able to use its own monies to buy 50 new very sophisticated Russian jet fighters. The Australian public has a right to know why it has, in a roundabout way, bought these machines for Indonesia rather than our own forces ostensibly under the guise of aid.

Alan Irvine 26/1/2011